MOTHER EARTH : OUR ONLY HOME IS ALIVE

Air Force School, ASTE

Proudly presents.....

On 7th November 2020

Someday you'll finally see
the unpleasant sight of our polluted sea.
Someday you'll know the truth
and never ever pollute.
Someday day you'll rise and realize
our planet is dying right before our eyes.
Someday we will see that the earth is being abused
and we will stop before we finally lose.
Someday you'll finally take a chance to save our planet in advance.
Someday the earth will be treated kind
after all it is yours and mine.

What a wonderful joy it is to see,
the beauty of nature and its majesty.
Everything blends, entwines and embraces,
spaced precisely in their designated places.
What a marvel to see, I wish I were a bee,
flying free,
smelling life's roses, no particular place to be.
How can it be, such a marvel to see
when it's possessed by such as you and me?
Ours to have, cherish, and protect,
not to pollute, take for granted, nor neglect.
Enjoy the earth, treat it kind
after all it is ours, yes... yours and mine.

One planet, one humanity, one love - Earth, our only home
